As we near the holiday season, we'd like to once again thank you and all the donors of UltraPatriot.com, for the donated calling cards which are distributed by our offices in Iraq, Kuwait, and Afghanistan.

The American Red Cross maintains two offices in Iraq, one in Kuwait, and one in Afghanistan. Our staff distribute a wide variety of items, including gift certificates, snacks and toiletries, and calling cards which are purchased through programs like yours to service members deployed far from home. Every card we are able to distribute guarantees that service member multiple opportunities to call home and re-connect with loved ones.

Please share our thanks with your donors for their generous support of military service members through the American Red Cross.

Best wishes,

Ash Duncan
